

Lebanon City Schools
Notice of Educational Services
For Homeless Children and Youth

Welcome to our school and school district. The following district staff member has been assigned to help introduce you to the various educational programs and services that are available. This person will also assist you in completing or requesting any paperwork or records we may need to have on file:

Local Liaison Name: Krista Foley

Telephone: (513) 934-5384

School Address: 700 Holbrook Ave., Lebanon, OH 45036

Our school and school district provide equal access and comparable services to all students regardless of their home living situation. Homeless students are not required to attend a separate school for homeless youth and have the right to benefit from programs for which they are eligible. Some examples of these programs are for students who are disabled, gifted, limited-English proficient, or participate in vocational education and preschool programs.

You also have the right to be enrolled immediately in school and to participate in and benefit from such programs as:

- Transportation services
- Free or reduced price school lunch program
- Title I services (that may include additional academic support such as before or after school programs, summer school, help in the regular classroom, etc.)
